Topic I Dream A World

Date

I Dream a World where man
No other man will drown, where love will bless the earth
And peace its paths adorn
I dream a world where all will know sweet freedom's way, where greed no longer saps the soul
Nor avarice blights our day.

A world I dream where black or white, whatever race you be,
will share the bounties of the earth
And every man is free,
where wretchedness will hang its head
And joy, like a pearl, attends the needs of all mankind-of such I dream, my world!

GRAMMAR IN A NUT SHELL

A noun is the name of anything
A school, or garden, hoop or swing.

Adjectives tell the kind of noun,

As great, small, pretty, white, or brown.

(Three little words you often see Are articles - an, a, and the.)

"In place of nouns the pronouns sit -
She went, you said, we laughed, it hit."

Verbs tell of something being done -
To read, count, laugh, sing, jump, or run.

How things are done the adverbs tell,
As slowly, quickly, ill, or well.

Conjunctions join the words together

As men and women, wind or weather.

The prepositions stand before
A noun, as in or through the door.

The interjections show surprise

As Oh! How pretty! Ah! How wise!

The whole are called the eight parts of speech.

Which reading, writing, speaking teach.
